

Hibs squad fly out to the Netherlands to prepare for upcoming campaign

The Hibs squad will travel to the Netherlands today to prepare for the upcoming 2024/25 William Hill Premiership campaign.

David Gray's first game ended in a 5-0 victory over Edinburgh City at Meadowbank on Saturday, now the players will train for a week before returning home the following Monday (8 July, 2024).

During the intensive eight-day training camp, Gray's side will play two pre-season friendlies facing German side MSV Duisburg and Greek champions PAOK.

Hibs will take on MSV Duisburg behind-closed-doors on Wednesday 3 July, 2024.

Supporters cannot attend, however, they can follow the action across Hibs' social media channels.

The second friendly of the camp against PAOK will take place three days later on Saturday 6 July, 2024 kicking off at 3pm (UK time) at the Sportpark Kerkebos (Molenstraat 37, 5866 AA Swolgen).

Tickets for the match are currently on sale.

Tickets will be processed via the club's e-ticketing platform.

Once a supporter has 'purchased' a ticket, they will be emailed with a digital voucher.

This voucher can then be swapped for a physical ticket on entry to the ground at Sportpark Kerkebos.
