

Marvin Bartley announced as a special guest for Hibs 'An Audience With Alan Stubbs' event

Marvin Bartley will be a special guest for Hibs 'An Audience With Alan Stubbs event next month at the new Behind The Goals suite in the Famous Five stand.

Hosted by Grant Stott, the event will take place on Monday 12 August, and the evening is sure to be filled with stories, laughs and entertainment.

A fans' favourite, Bartley was virtually ever-present for the Hibs during his four years at Easter Road and played his part in creating history with the club.

The defensive midfielder was an important part of Alan Stubbs' side that went on to lift the Scottish Cup for the first time in 114 years.

Alongside this, he also played a huge part as Hibs won promotion back to the Scottish Premiership in 2016/17.

Hosted by Grant Stott, the event will take place on Monday 12 August, and the evening is sure to be filled with stories, laughs and entertainment.

Ticket prices start from £54.95 per person and includes:

Two-course meal from Club caterer Elixir with picturesque views of the Easter Road pitch

The opportunity to contribute to the discussion on stage with a Q&A

Card bar serving a range of draught beers, chilled wines, selection of local spirits and soft drinks

Chance to win special prizes throughout the evening

Doors open from 6pm.

Tickets can be purchased via the Hibernian FC website.

Limited VIP packages are also available for the evening, which includes a private meet and greet with Alan Stubbs, Marvin Bartley, and the panel in our Chairman's Club, a premium table and arrival drink!
