

Memorable year for bowls president and champion John

A memorable year for John Wright who is not only president at Whitehouse & Grange bowling club but also the gents champion for 2024.

John received the Colin Macandrew trophy from honorary president Michael Marshall.

The women's championship was won by Gill Brown.

The club host the Purves two ball triples on Saturday 10 August. Entry is £30 with a prize fund of £750.

Includes morning coffee and roll as well as light lunch for qualifiers in the round robin format.

Entries to wandgbc@gmail.com

John Wright – bowls club president AND champion

Gill Brown is ladies champion for 2024