

Mortonhall are under-11 tennis champs

The Mortonhall boys team of Thomas Easton (who unfortunately missed the photo call), Gregor Logie, Wilson Tervit, Jude Cowan, Hamish Coffey and Matthew Walker came out victorious on maximum points in winning the East of Scotland under-11 tennis league for 2024.

Dan Murray, head coach at Mortonhall Tennis Club, said: "The boys did superbly – great serving, drop shots and some brilliant lobs – well done to the team!"

The outcome followed a two month long programme of matches involving a total of six clubs with the home teams hosting a lunch after every tie.

And, the format of singles and doubles to claim team points added to the competitive scenario.
