

Police arrest 13-year-old boy in connection with Brunswick Street robbery

Police have arrested a 13-year-old boy in connection with a robbery which took place on Brunswick Street in Leith around 1.45pm on Tuesday, 4 June, 2024.

The arrest follows the release of CCTV images earlier this week.

Officers say that a report will be sent to the relevant authority.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "A 13-year-old male youth has been arrested and charged in connection with a robbery in Edinburgh.

"The incident took place on Brunswick Street in Leith around 1.45pm on Tuesday, 4 June, 2024.

"A report will be sent to the relevant authority."