

Police becoming increasingly concerned for welfare of vulnerable 79-year-old woman

UPDATE FROM POLICE SCOTLAND 2.30pm
28 July

Wilma Cameron, reported missing in Armadale, has been traced safe and well.

Thank you to all who shared our appeal.

Police are appealing for the public's help to trace Wilma Cameron who has been reported missing from Armadale.

The vulnerable 79-year-old was seen in Armadale around 8.30am on Sunday, 28 July, 2024.

Wilma is believed to have travelled to Edinburgh and may have been in the Waterloo Place area around 10.20am. She has connections to Aberdeen and may be trying to travel to there.

Wilma is described as 5 ft 5, of slim build with short, white hair. When last seen she was wearing a cream puffer jacket, white and grey checked trousers and carrying a green handbag.

Inspector Andy Meikle from Livingston Police Station said: "We are becoming increasingly concerned for Wilma's welfare and it is important that we trace her.

"She has links to Aberdeen and may be using public transport to travel.

"We would urge anyone who thinks they may have seen her to please let us know."

Anyone who has any information regarding Wilma's whereabouts can contact Police Scotland on 101 quoting incident number PS-20240724-1268.
