

QuinnBet extend their long-term partnership with Hibs

Hibs have announced that QuinnBet have extended their long-term support of the club, renewing their partnership into 2027.

QuinnBet's refreshed brand logo will continue to be displayed across the Men's First-Team travel wear, worn by the playing team and coaching staff for domestic and international travel, and also feature prominently at Easter Road.

Hibs Commercial Director, Murray Milligen said: "QuinnBet have been long-term supporters of both the Club and Scottish football so we're really pleased to continue our long-standing partnership.

"We've enjoyed an extremely positive working relationship over the last few seasons and we're looking forward to building our relationship over the next few years."

Niall McPartland, Head of Commercial and Sponsorship at QuinnBet, added: "It is a real privilege for us to continue our proud association with Hibernian FC as the 150th anniversary of the club approaches next year.

"The partnership extension into 2027, cements our proud association with the club and our presence across Scottish football generally.

"Our brands, QuinnBet and QuinnCasino, enjoy huge support across Scotland, the UK and Ireland.

“We will continue to utilise the partnership to promote our brand in conjunction with Safer Gambling, which is integral to our business and which Hibernian FC is fully supportive of.

“We would like to wish everyone at the club the very best for the season ahead.”
