

Teenager arrested following disturbance in Livingston

Police Scotland say that there is no risk to the wider public following an incident last night in Livingston.

Officers were called to a property in the Quentin Rise area of Dedridge shortly after 11pm following reports of a disturbance.

A 17-year-old male was arrested and enquiries are ongoing.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "A 17-year-old male has been arrested in connection with a disturbance within a property in the Quentin Rise area of Dedridge, which was reported around 11.05pm on Monday, 1 July, 2024.

"Further enquiries into the incident are ongoing and there is no risk to the wider public."