

Four people taken to hospital following serious crash in West Lothian

Road Policing officers are appealing for information following a serious crash in West Lothian.

Around 2.35pm on Sunday, 7 July, 2024 officers were called to a report of a collision involving a grey Audi A1 and a blue VW Tiguan on the A704, just off the A71, in West Calder.

Emergency services attended and the two women, the driver and passenger of the Audi, were taken to Wishaw General Hospital.

The driver and passenger of the Hyundai were taken to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh. The passenger, a 69-year-old woman, remains in a critical but stable condition.

Sergeant Paul Ewing said: "Enquiries are ongoing and we are asking anyone who has not already spoken to officers and can assist with our investigation to get in touch

"We would also like to see any dashcam footage from the area, including any that captures both vehicles prior to the collision happening."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Police Scotland via 101 quoting incident number 1862 of 7 July, 2024.
