

Two men arrested following theft of motorbike in central Edinburgh

Police in Edinburgh have arrested two men for theft of a motorbike in the centre of the city.

Officers responded to a call during the early hours of this morning.

The men have since been charged and were held in custody to appear at court.

Officers have thanked the public for their assistance.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "During the early hours of this morning, officers responded to a report of two men stealing a motorbike in central Edinburgh.

"Two people have been charged in connection and held in custody to appear at court.

"We would like to thank the public who assisted officers who attended.

"We would also ask anyone with concerns or information about motorbike anti-social behaviour or motorbike crime in their area to get in touch.

"This can be done online, dialling 101 or through Crimestoppers.
