

Fringe 2024 – House of Cleopatra

The charisma of Beyoncé, the influence of Oprah, and the wealth of the Kardashians.

There was one woman who had it all – and a millennia before them: Cleopatra. The House of Cleopatra is an all-new, toga-toting, eyeliner-filled musical extravaganza from Jeff Daye and Laura Kleinbaum shining a palm-fringed light on history's most famous woman.

This exhilarating, immersive new musical takes the audience on a turbulent ride down the Nile as Cleopatra's epic reign begins to teeter on the edge of destruction. Assembly (Checkpoint) until Sunday 25th August 2024 (not 7th, 12th, 19th) at 23:15. MUSICAL

<https://tickets.edfringe.com/whats-on/house-of-cleopatra>

The @edfringe show House of Cleopatra stars Marcellus Whyte as Mark Antony – and he sings! This is however a show which shines a light on history's most famous woman A musical @AssemblyFest Checkpoint <pic.twitter.com/DZJdiLfhuz>

– Edinburgh Reporter (@EdinReporter) August 6, 2024

