

Police concerned for welfare of missing 42-year-old woman last seen in Liberton

POLICE UPDATE: We are pleased to confirm that Rebecca Clough, who was reported missing from the Liberton area of Edinburgh has been traced safe and well.

Thank you to everyone who shared our appeal.

Police are appealing for help to trace a 42-year-old woman reported missing from the Liberton area of Edinburgh.

Rebecca Clough, known as Becca, was last seen in the Liberton area in the evening of Tuesday, 13 August, 2024.

Becca may be travelling towards the west of the country via car.

Becca is described as white, around 5ft 7in tall, and has shoulder length red/purple hair. She was last seen wearing black cotton tracksuit bottoms and top. She occasionally wears glasses.

Sergeant Craig Darling said: "We are concerned for Becca's welfare and appeal to anyone who believes they may have seen her to contact the police immediately".

If anyone has information which may assist us to find Becca please call Police Scotland via 101 quoting incident 0808 of 14 August.