

Witness appeal after woman sexually assaulted on Edinburgh to Dundee train

Detectives are appealing for witnesses after a woman was sexually assaulted on board a train in Edinburgh.

At around 7pm on Monday 29 July, a woman was waiting on the platform at Edinburgh Haymarket for the 7.05pm train to Dundee.

After boarding the train and sitting down, a man who had approached the woman on the platform moved seats to sit opposite her. He then proceeded to sexually assault the woman.

The man was described as being of southern European descent and in his mid-40s with dark hair and a grey beard. He was wearing a red, white and blue jumper with blue jeans.

Anyone with information is asked to contact British Transport Police by texting 61016 or by calling 0800 40 50 40, quoting reference 598 of 29 July.

Alternatively, you can contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
