

Conference League tickets on sale from Wednesday

Heart of Midlothian FC have confirmed that tickets for all three of their UEFA Conference League home ties will go on sale on Wednesday at 10am.

Season ticket holders have an exclusive window to buy their seats and tickets start at £17.

Meanwhile, defender Nathaniel Atkinson has joined Melbourne City and makes the move back to the A-League on a permanent basis.

Hearts said: "Everyone thanks Nathaniel for his time at the club and wishes him well for the future."

The club also confirm that tickets for the trip to St Mirren on Saturday, September 21 have sold out. Kick-off is 15.00.

Hearts next home match is against Ross County in the William Hill Premiership on Saturday, September 28, and their Europa Conference League opener is on October 3 (17.45) at Dinamo Minsk in Belarus before they travel to Aberdeen in the league on October 6 (15.00).

EURO FLASHBACK: A giant flag in the Gorgie end when Hearts entertained FC Viktoria Plzen in the Euro play-off. Picture by Nigel Duncan