

Drugs worth an estimated £165,000 seized after police search house in Edinburgh

Drugs worth an estimated £165,000 have been recovered after the search of a house in Edinburgh.

Officers searched the property on Ratcliffe Terrace in the city during the morning of Wednesday, 25 September and recovered cannabis and cocaine.

A 26-year-old man has been arrested and charged in connection with the recovery.

He is due to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court on Thursday, 26 September.

Sergeant Mark Walker said: "Police Scotland is committed to removing illegal substances from our communities and we will take all measures to disrupt those involved in the drug trade.

"This arrest underlines our commitment to the Serious Organised Crime Taskforce and the country's Serious Organised Crime Strategy.

"Recoveries such as this rely on information from people who do not tolerate the scourge of drugs in their neighbourhoods.

"Anyone with concerns about drugs in their community can contact us via 101, or calling Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111."
