

Fireworks event to be held at Royal Highland Centre

The largest outdoor public fireworks event in Scotland this year will be held at the Royal Highland Centre.

Organisers expect to welcome around 15,000 people to the professional show on 3 November.

GC Live and local pyrotechnics experts, 21CC Group, promise a family friendly show.

The Red Hot Chilli Pipers will perform along with the street theatre and LED drummers' troupe Spark! and there will be fairground rides, food and drink, a bonfire and a laser show.

Geoff Crow, Director of GC Live said: "At GC Live we are committed to creating events which are both enjoyable and safe for all attendees. An organised and large-scale fireworks events such as Fawkes Festival, held under strict safety regulations, offers a very secure and enjoyable experience for all visitors at the fireworks event.

"With professional oversight, designated viewing areas, clear signs throughout the site, crowd management strategies and compliance with established guidelines, Fawkes Festival will ensure that the excitement of fireworks can be enjoyed responsibly and safely."

Bori Sallaiova, Event Manager at the Royal Highland Centre said: "We are very much looking forward to welcoming everyone to the Royal Highland Centre this November for Fawkes

Festival.

“At the Royal Highland Centre we are committed to the safety and enjoyment of all attendees, we are excited to host Fawkes Festival which will be conducted under strict safety protocols and expert supervision, reducing the risks associated with private fireworks use. GC Live will ensure that guests can experience the excitement of a fireworks display in a secure setting.”

For more information on the Fawkes Festival and to book tickets, go to: www.fawkesfestival.com

The event is sponsored by housebuilders Taylor Wimpey.

