

Hibs announce new partnership with leading sports management company Destination Sport Travel

Hibs have agreed a new partnership with leading sports management company Destination Sport Travel.

Destination Sport Travel work on behalf of 40+ sports organisations including clubs, governing bodies and federations.

The business has supported the Scottish Football Association with its travel requirements over the past six months and also has developed several long-term partnerships with numerous English Premier League clubs.

The multi-year partnership will see Destination Sport Travel handle business travel for Hibernian FC, alongside team travel requirements such as training camps, overseas friendlies and potential European competition.

“We’re delighted to be teaming up with Destination Sport Travel,” said Murray Milligen, Commercial Director at Hibernian FC.

“Off-the-field efficiencies play an important role in every elite sporting environment, so to be able to leverage the expertise of Destination’s travel operations team is a huge benefit for us as a Club.”

Destination Sport Travel Managing Director, Rob Slawson added:

"We're pleased to announce Hibernian FC as our latest client.

"As a specialist sports travel management company, our business has been built to provide best-in-class service to sports organisations, so we look forward to supporting the club with its business travel and team travel requirements moving forward."