

Home Bargains opening new store at Fort Kinnaird

Home Bargains is opening a new £1 million store at Fort Kinnaird this Saturday at 8am.

The range of products available will include homewares, health and beauty essentials, sweets, snacks and drinks as well as fresh and frozen food.

The new Edinburgh 3 shop is one of 50 which Home Bargains will open in the UK this year and it will employ 60 new members of staff.

Robert Sivewright, the new Edinburgh 3 store manager, said: "I am super excited to be opening the new XL store in fort Kinnaird, there is nothing about the process that hasn't excited me, the planning stages and keeping things on track with my secret love of a spreadsheet. The pressure of a new store and a brand-new team of around 60 team members and 6 management has given me even more drive and determination, my goals for the store are clear for everyone to 'be their best' and together as a team we can achieve.

"As the latest location in this vibrant community, we've created 60 job opportunities, igniting pride and progress among our fellow residents. This store goes beyond mere bricks and shelves; it symbolizes a place where dreams can flourish.

"Our new Edinburgh location will be a great store for us, and we're proud to be able to offer local people top-branded goods at exceptionally low prices."
