

Missing Fife woman 32 last seen in Princes Street with her Golden Labrador dog

UPDATE – Sheryle Anne Speirs has been found safe and well.

Police in Fife are continuing to appeal for assistance in tracing Sheryle Anne Speirs, also known as McKinney, 32, who was reported missing from the Levenmouth area.

It is believed Sheryle travelled to Edinburgh by bus with a man with distinctive facial tattoos and a Golden Labrador dog. They were seen on Princes Street on Tuesday, 17 September, and may still be in the area.

Sheryle is described as white, around 5ft 2 in height and of slim build, with medium length dyed red hair. She was last seen to be wearing a dark anorak jacket.

Inspector Colin Salmond said: “Sheryle has been missing for a number of days now and this is out of character for her.

“We have a number of police resources out looking for Sheryle and just want to make sure she is safe and well.

“Sheryle, we would also ask you to get in touch, so we know you are okay.”

If you have seen Sheryle or have any information which could assist police, please contact 101 quoting reference 2573 of 16 September 2024.
