

Nine Hibs players will represent their nations during the international break

Martin Boyle and Lewis Miller joined up with Graham Arnold's Socceroos at the start of the week for their upcoming World Cup qualifiers.

They will face Bahrain (Thursday 5 September, 11:10am UK time kick-off), and Indonesia (Tuesday 10 September, 1pm UK time kick-off).

This is the start of Australia's third round qualifying group. They progressed having topped Group I in the second round beating Palestine, Lebanon and Bangladesh home and away.

Miller has a slight knock on his knee, so will be unavailable for the first game against Bahrain. However, he might be available for the Indonesia match.

Boyle currently has 28 caps for Australia, whilst Miller has six.

Kieron Bowie and Murray Johnson have both been called up to Scotland's Under-21s squad.

Bowie has caught the eye of many Hibs fans since his summer switch to Easter Road, whilst Johnson has impressed on loan at Airdrieonians.

Scotland's Under-21s will continue their Euro qualifying campaign, currently sitting second in their group behind Spain.

They will face Spain (Friday 6 September, 7pm UK time kick-off) and Malta (Tuesday 10 September, 5.30pm UK time kick-off) this month.

Bowie currently has nine caps for the young Scots, whilst Johnson is looking for his first.

Rudi Molotnikov and Rory Whittaker have also been selected by Scotland's youth teams – being called up for the Under-19s.

Molotnikov has been a regular for Neil MacFarlane's side earning nine caps to date, whilst Whittaker is looking for his first cap at that level.

Scotland's Under-19s will face Azerbaijan (Wednesday 4 September, 6pm UK time kick-off), the Faroe Islands (Friday 6 September, 4pm UK time kick-off), and the Netherlands (Monday 9 September, 6pm UK time kick-off).

Nathan Moriah-Welsh has joined up with Guyana for the September international break.

The Golden Jaguars face Suriname (Thursday 5 September, 9pm UK time kick-off) and Martinique (Monday 9 September, 9pm UK time kick-off) in the CONCACAF Nations League.

Alongside the two sides they face this month, Guyana will also face Costa Rica, Guadalupe, and Guatemala in their group.

Moriah-Welsh has 16 caps for Guyana.

Rocky Bushiri will spend the September international break with the DR Congo men's team.

They will face Guinea (Friday 6 September, 5pm UK time kickoff) and Ethiopia (Monday 9 September, 8pm UK time kick-off) in their African Cup of Nations qualifiers.

The centre-back has two caps for DR Congo so far!

Nohan Kenneh could also feature in African Cup of Nations qualifiers, but with the Liberia National Team.

The defensive midfielder could face Togo (Friday 6 September, 5pm UK time kick-off) and Algeria (Tuesday 10 September, 5pm kick-off) as the 'The Lone Stars' look to qualify for the major tournament.

He currently has 10 caps for Liberia.
