

October concert at Queen's Hall will raise funds for Ukrainian music students

A concert will be held in the Queens Hall on 28 October 2024 to raise funds for the education of Ukrainian music students in exile.

The principal soloist will be the outstanding Ukrainian classical pianist Anna Fedorova, with supporting performances from the Aurora Ensemble. It will be a one-off event with the very specific objective of raising funds for musical education.

Financial contributions can be made by way of Gofundme. It will take up to £10,000 in preliminary funding to “get the show on the road”. Every contribution at this stage would be an immense help. Ticket sales are now live.

From an early age, the Ukrainian-born pianist Anna Fedorova showed an innate musical maturity and amazing technical abilities. Her live recording of Rachmaninoff's 2nd Piano Concerto has had more than 35 million views on YouTube. The performance is highly acclaimed by critics and world-renowned musicians.

Anna regularly performs at the world's most prestigious concert halls such as the Concertgebouw Amsterdam, New York's Carnegie Hall, Palacio de Bellas Artes in Mexico City, Tonhalle Zürich, Théâtre des Champs-Élysées, Bunka Kaikan in Tokyo, and many others.
