

Police Scotland release CCTV image after smoke pyrotechnic devices ignited at Celtic Park in May

Police Scotland has released CCTV images of a man they believe may have information which could assist them with an ongoing investigation into culpable and reckless behaviour at a game between Celtic and Rangers on Saturday, 11 May, 2024.

Thousands of supporters from throughout Scotland attended this fixture.

During the match several smoke pyrotechnic devices were ignited within the Celtic Park stadium.

The man who police believe may be able to assist them, is described as being white, slim build, he was seen to have no top on and was wearing a green and white scarf round his neck and black shorts.

Constable Daniel Brady: "We are keen to talk to the man in the image as we believe he may have information which could assist with our enquiries. I would encourage him or anyone who may recognise him to contact us."

“Anyone with any information is asked to contact 101 quoting incident number 0933 of 11 May, 2024. Alternatively, Crimestoppers can be contacted anonymously on 0800 555 111.”
