

Police urge missing teenager to return home or get in touch

UPDATE 15 SEPTEMBER – Bonnie Bradley, reported missing from Leith has been traced safe and well.

Police are becoming increasingly concerned for the well-being of Bonnie Bradley, 13, who has been missing from the Leith area of Edinburgh since Tuesday, 10 September 2024.

Bonnie is white, 5ft5 in height, of average build and has long brown hair. It is not known what she is wearing.

Inspector Quentin Russell, Police Scotland, Edinburgh, said: "We have been making extensive enquiries since Bonnie was reported missing but so far she has not been traced.

"There was a possible sighting of her getting on a No 11 bus on Ferry Road, Leith between 2pm and 3pm on Friday, 13 September, but that has yet to be confirmed.

"We believe she is still in the Edinburgh area and may be staying with someone she knows but again, as she is only 13-year-old, we need to make sure she is safe and well.

"She has not been away from family for this length of time hence our and her family's concern.

"If you have any information on Bonnie's whereabouts please call police via 101 quoting incident number 0771 of 11 of September 2024.

“We’d also urge Bonnie to return home or get in touch with police as soon as possible.”
