

Children eat free at this Edinburgh restaurant during half term

One of Edinburgh's most popular neighbourhood restaurants has launched a new Kids Eat Free menu just in time for the October half-term holidays.

Morningside's McLarens on the Corner is running the special offer at the family-friendly venue on weekdays only from Monday 14th to Friday 18th October. McLarens restaurant, bar and garden is family-friendly and dog-friendly with accessible ground floor and first-floor spaces and accessible bathrooms.

Served daily until 5pm, McLarens' Kids Eat Free menu is available for children aged up to 10 years when accompanied by one adult dining from the main menu. A choice of popular main dishes from the Kids Eat Free menu includes Fish & Chips, Bangers & Mash, Mac & Cheese and Cheeseburger & Chips.

General Manager of McLarens on the Corner, Murray Tavendale, said: "Just in time for the October half term holidays, we've launched our new Kids Eat Free menu offering a choice of tasty options to help put a smile on everyone's faces.

"At McLarens on the Corner, we pride ourselves on being one of Edinburgh's best neighbourhood restaurants. We use the best fresh Scottish produce to create delicious, hearty dishes to suit our younger guests and their whole family.

“If the sun is shining this October half term, our garden provides plenty of space for alfresco dining. Four-legged friends are welcome to join their family too.”

The Kids Eat Free menu at McLarens on the Corner is available on weekdays only until 5pm from 14th to 18th October. Kids aged up to 10 years eat free when an adult is dining from the main menu. One free child main course only per dining adult. Advance booking is advised.

For more information on McLarens on the Corner, go to <https://mclarensonthecorner.co.uk>

Photos courtesy of Signature Group