

Colin leads racketball vets to victory

Edinburgh Sports Club's Colin Cruickshank is pictured with the team trophy after captaining Scotland over-70s to the Home International Racketball title at the Newlands club, Glasgow.

The Scottish over-70s won all three matches – against England, Wales and Jersey.

Edinburgh were well represented in the other categories with Watsonian pair Chris Gray and Chris Green leading the over-40s and over-50s respectively while Rod Robinson (Waverley) was at the heart of the over-60s line-up.

