

Concerns grow for welfare of missing 34-year-old woman last seen in Granton area

Police are appealing for the assistance of the public to trace Emma Shaw, 34, who is missing from Edinburgh.

Emma was last seen around 5.30am on Monday, 7 October 2024, in the Granton Terrace area of the city.

She is described as white, 5ft6ins in height, heavy build, blonde/ginger hair in a short ponytail. It is not known what she is wearing but she is believed to have a large green rucksack with her.

Inspector George Nisbet said: "Concerns are growing for Emma's welfare and it is important we make sure she is safe and well.

"We are asking anyone who has seen Emma or knows where she might be to get in touch.

"She has connections to Granton area of Edinburgh and also Blackpool. She uses public transport and taxis to get about.

"I'd also say to Emma, if you see this appeal, please get in touch with your family or police. We all want to make sure you are safe and well."

Information can be passed to officers via 101. Please quote incident number 0716 of Monday, 7 October when calling.
