Concert to be held in Portobello — tickets now available

Tickets are now available for a light classical concert on 3 November in Portobello.

Sirocco Winds is a professional wind quintet, made up of graduates of the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, performing once again in Edinburgh. This event follows a successful concert performed in the area last February.

The concert will take place on Sunday 3 November at 3pm.

The programme will include light classical and popular music.

Tickets are priced at £15 (full), £13 (concessions). Under 16s free in advance or on the door.

Further details in the poster attached — and at the Facebook link from the QR code.
