

Family worried about welfare of missing 51-year-old man last seen Craigour Place

Police are appealing for assistance in tracing 51-year-old Henry Hunter who has been reported missing from the Lothian Road area of Edinburgh.

Henry was last seen about 1.30pm on Monday 21st October 2024 in Craigour Place, Edinburgh. His current whereabouts are unknown and his family are becoming increasingly concerned.

Henry is described as being a white male, 6ft tall, stocky build, balding with a short fair / grey stubble beard and habitually wears glasses. He was last known to be wearing a grey wool flat / penny cap, blue shirt, and black jacket, black trousers, black business shoes. He was driving a Black Toyota Coupe registration number BG62ZPN.

Black Toyota Coupe registration number BG62ZPN

Inspector Stephen Quinn from Howdenhall Police station says "Henry has been missing for a number of days now, and his family are understandably worried about him. We have a number of police resources out looking for him and I am now looking for the assistance from the public in tracing both Henry and the vehicle he was driving. "

If you believe you have seen Henry or have any information please contact 101 quoting incident no. 2181 of the 22/10/2024.