

Four men charged following violence and disorder after Hibs v Motherwell game

Police rushed to St Andrew Square last night in response to reports of violence and disorder following the Hibs v Motherwell match at Easter Road.

Officers arrested six men, two of whom were released without charge.

Four males, aged 16, 17, 18 and 22, were charged.

All four males have been released on an undertaking and are due to appear in court at a later date.