

Hibs official open training session to take place at Easter Road next week

Hibs official open training session will take place on Monday 14 October, 2024 at Easter Road Stadium – exclusively for Season Ticket Holders and Hibs Kids Members.

Hibs Head Coach, David Gray and his coaching staff will put his players through their paces with a full training session, allowing supporters to gain a greater insight into how the team prepare in the lead-up to match day.

This popular event is one of the benefits to all Season Ticket Holders, Hibs Kids Members and Hibs Kids Plus One members – who will be able to attend for free.

Doors will open at 10am on Monday 14 October, with the players taking to the pitch for the session at 10:30am.

Alongside the action on the pitch, there will be a range of other activities happening around the ground on the day, including face painting, balloon artists, virtual reality football, skill-based games & more.

The kiosks will also be open serving breakfast rolls from 10am.

Supporters will also get to hear from the coaches with live interviews during the event conducted by matchday host, Barrie Wilkins.

Following the training session, the players will stay behind to sign shirts and pose for photos with supporters before the event finishes at 12:45pm.

Hibs Kids will be able to bring one parent/guardian per membership to the event (so two tickets per client reference number).

Season Ticket Holders and Hibs Kids Plus One Members are entitled to one ticket per client reference number.

Please note, all tickets must be assigned to the relevant client reference numbers.

Those eligible will be able to redeem their free tickets by logging into their account within e-ticketing, selecting this event, adding their tickets to their basket, and then checking out as normal.

Tickets will only be available as print at home or digital e-tickets.
