

Man arrested for being concerned in supply of drugs in Merchiston area

Police officers in Edinburgh have seized a quantity of drugs and a four-figure sum of money.

The officers from Howdenhall station arrested and charged a male for being concerned in the supply of drugs in the Merchiston area.

The information was supplied by members of the public and officers are appealing to anyone with information relating to controlled drugs to contact them.

The information can be supplied in confidence.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: “Following on from information provided by members of the public, officers from Howdenhall arrested and charged a male for being concerned in the supply of drugs in the Merchiston area.

“Over £13,000 in drugs along with a four-figure sum of cash were seized as a result of this proactive work.

“Anyone with information relating to drugs, can call Police Scotland on 101 or alternatively Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 where information can be passed anonymously.