

Oatridge curling club marks 40th anniversary

Ten teams took to the ice at Curl Edinburgh to mark Oatridge Curling Club's 40th Anniversary with a bonspiel eventually won by the hosts' 2<sup>nds</sup> with 28 points.

Mid Calder were runners up with 26 points while Kinross-based Abercorn were third on 24 points.

Three clubs from West Lothian with links to Oatridge CC took part along with other guests. There were some late changes to the teams due to illness and injury.

The bonspiel was followed by a meal after which John Irvine, of Linlithgow Curling Club, proposed a vote of thanks.

Following on from the successful bonspiel the club are marking their milestone with a dinner at the Oatridge Hotel, Uphall, on 4 November.
