

Personality model explained at business breakfast

The next Midlothian and East Lothian Chamber business breakfast is entitled Insights Discovery and it is on Wednesday, October 30 between 8.30am and 10.30am at The Queen Margaret University Edinburgh, Queen Margaret University Drive, Musselburgh, East Lothian EH21 6UU

Jaclyn Pringle of HR Staple Ltd will discuss Insights Discovery, a global model based on personality types at work.

It helps businesses understand their employees' strengths, communication styles, and preferences, and brings key benefits for workplaces of all shapes and sizes and the people within them.

By understanding diverse personality types, teams can collaborate more effectively, leveraging individual strengths and it fosters improved interaction among team members, reducing misunderstandings.

Find out more on this popular model which is claimed to bring real and lasting benefits and enjoy networking (pictured) to build your business.

Book at <https://www.melcc.org.uk/chamber-events/1172/>

FURTHER DETAILS: Mia Gilchrist on 07824 698764