

Family pay tribute to 86-year-old woman who died following crash in Port Seton

A pedestrian who died following a crash in Port Seton in East Lothian on Sunday, 22 September, 2024, has been named.

She was Charlotte (Lottie) Harvie, aged 86, from the Port Seton area.

Her family has issued the following statement: "We are devastated at the tragic loss of our much-loved mother and grandmother. She will be sorely missed by all that were lucky enough to cross her path, a true inspiration and forever our superwoman.

"We are deeply grateful to all the emergency services for their outstanding care, compassion and support throughout this awful time. We would like to ask for privacy to continue to grieve our loss."

The incident happened in a car park at Seton Sands Caravan Park around 10.40am and involved a white Vauxhall Combo van. The van driver was not injured.

Sergeant Dominic Doyle said: "Our thoughts remain with the family and friends of Charlotte at what is a very difficult time for them.

"Enquiries to establish the full circumstances continue. We can assist with our investigation and who has not already spoken to officers to get in touch.

“Anyone who can help is asked to call Police Scotland on 101, quoting incident number 1226 of Sunday, 22 September, 2024.”
