

Police seek help to trace owner of a possibly stolen bike which was found in Musselburgh

Police in East Lothian are appealing for the public's help to track down the owner of a bicycle.

Officers have released a photograph of the bike which was recently found in the Musselburgh area.

They suspect that it had previously been stolen.

A Police spokesperson said: The bicycle pictured was found recently in the Musselburgh area in circumstances where it is believed to have been stolen.

If you are the rightful owner of this bike or have any relevant information please contact 101 and quote incident number 1336 of 12th September 2024.