

Detectives study CCTV in hunt for two men following robbery in Bathgate

Detectives are appealing for information after a 30-year-old male was assaulted and robbed of his phone by two men in Bathgate on Friday, 22 November, 2024.

Around 12.45pm, officers received a report of the incident that had taken place a short time earlier on a path between North Bridge Street and Mansfield Street.

The injured male was taken to St Johns Hospital and released after treatment.

One of the suspects is described as Asian and the other Polish. The Polish man was around 35 years of age. Both were wearing high-vis vests.

Detective Constable Emma Thaker said: "Enquiries are continuing and officers are studying CCTV from in and around the local area to establish more information on the circumstances surrounding this incident and trace the two men responsible.

"I would ask anyone who was in the area between 12pm and 12.45pm on Friday, who witnessed anything suspicious or has any information that may assist this investigation to contact us.

"I would also ask any drivers with dash-cam to please review their footage and get in touch if it holds anything relevant."

Information should be passed to 101 quoting reference number 1451 of 22 November, 2024.
