

Duddingston Crescent closed following crash – Emergency Services on scene

An Edinburgh street has been closed due to a crash.

Emergency Services are in attendance at Duddingston Crescent at Hope Lane and Magdalene Drive which was reported at 12.15pm.

Police are asking road users to use an alternative route.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: “Duddingston Crescent in Edinburgh is closed between Hope Lane and Magdalene Drive due to a road crash involving a car and a male pedestrian, which was reported at 12.15pm.

“Emergency services are in attendance.

“Please use an alternative route.”

More to follow when we have it.