

Edinburgh Explorations: A Day of Discovering Unique Spots and Hidden Treasures

The fairy-tale atmosphere of the Scottish capital is always present, ensuring that locals and visitors alike stroll around a beautiful city that invites them to relax and admire life around them. Yes, Edinburgh's beauty is so powerful that you can feel its influence from the first moment you arrive. A day spent discovering its unique spots and hidden treasures will feel like a dream from which you won't want to wake up. Continue reading this article for practical tips to plan your day of Edinburgh explorations effectively.

Photo by Adam Wilson on Unsplash
Park at Edinburgh Airport

Why take your car with you when you can skip the traffic and wander around Edinburgh carefree? You won't even have to worry about your car, since the airport parking services are famous for their reliability and security. There are multiple car parks available in the vicinity, offering various services. You can check the best Edinburgh Airport parking offers on bookfhr.com, as they are presented in a clear way, making accurate and fast comparisons possible. You can choose from premium or budget-friendly parking options, located either next to the terminals or further away with a shuttle transfer, according to your needs and preferences.

Getting Around Edinburgh

How are you supposed to get from Edinburgh Airport to the city centre? The airport is excellently connected to the wider area thanks to the various means of transport available. At the airport, trams and buses stop regularly, while pre-booked private transfers and shuttle buses frequently leave and arrive throughout the day. In case you're wondering, the cheapest option is a bus, which takes you to Edinburgh city centre in a maximum of 45 minutes.

Hidden Gems to See During Your Edinburgh Explorations in One Day

We bet that you already know all the best things to do in Edinburgh. However, we aren't so sure about its hidden treasures. Let's uncover them now so you can include these must-see spots in your Edinburgh explorations during your trip.

The Vennel

Are you looking for a unique angle to capture Edinburgh Castle, one of the most photographed attractions in the Scottish capital? If so, you should head to The Vennel, a hidden stairway near the Grassmarket.

Dr. Neil's Garden

The Secret Garden, as this attraction is also known, is near Duddingston Loch, on the lower slopes of Arthur's Seat. It offers an escape from the hustle and bustle of the capital's busy pace. Thanks to its pond, trees, flowers, and walking paths, nature lovers will find it hard to leave.

The Cameo Cinema

One of the Edinburgh explorations that shouldn't be missing from the itinerary of a cinema lover is The Cameo Cinema. What's so special about it? Dating back to 1914, it's one of the oldest cinemas in Scotland.

Can't wait for a road trip or a quick flight to Edinburgh? Have a look at the Edinburgh Airport website for flights, parking, and transport options, and discover all the capital's treasures.