

Five things you need to know today

RIP Janey Godley

Janey Godley who died on Saturday once used a piece of video we made outside the SNP Conference in Perth. She gave it a new voiceover. At first we were puzzled (this was in the early days of Janey...) but eventually realised it was actually very funny indeed – and hopefully most people regarded the greater majority of what she did as a comedian as funny. She is credited with helping to bring the Covid-19 briefings by the then First Minister, Nicola Sturgeon, to life and to many more people than they might have reached.

Here is our video from 2017 one more time. We send our condolences to Ms Godley's family.

Royal Patron for Eric Liddell Community

HRH The Princess Royal attended the Eric Liddell 100 awards on Friday night bringing their commemoration year to an end. The year of celebrations recognised that it was 100 years since Eric Liddell won an Olympic gold medal in Paris in 1914.

At the end of the dinner, the Eric Liddell Community, which works with people with dementia at its Holy Corner base, announced that they were honoured to announce that The Princess Royal will now be their patron.

Fundraising appeal begins for Edinburgh Dog and Cat Home

An appeal begins today for funds to help pet owners keep their pets rather than having to give them up – and also to reduce the number of pets which the Edinburgh Dog and Cat Home have to rehome.

The photos alone are appealing...

Fairy Godmother of all pantos

By PHYLLIS STEPHEN

THE PANTO IS BACK Oh yes it is. Allan Stewart is playing a woman once more, this time, Faerie May. He said: "It was the first panto I did at the Glasgow Pavilion in 1975! Mummy, did he say 1975?... he's very old isn't he, Mummy? Yes! But wait till you see the legs. They are the legs of a 20 year old..." Local "Big Tidy", Grant Stott, is also back for his 30th pantomime year, playing Baroness Hibernia Fortuna. He said: "It's just great to be back together with you all at this magical time of year. As always, please boo and hiss at will." His fellow River City cast member, and panto regular, Jordan Young, will add to the fun as Buttons. Cinderella is on at Festival Theatre 23 November to 31 December, and there will be real ponies on the stage.
