

Joe causes a splash with young water polo Scots

Joe Mathieson of Portobello water polo club was voted Most Valuable Player for a Scottish under-18 boys water polo team who won Division Two of the UK inter-regional tournament.

The team defeated (English) West Midlands 16-10, Wales 19-8 and East (England) 18-13.

Joining Joe in the squad were Portobello colleagues Ben Williamson, Lorcan McNally and Struan Bailey while Daniel Chowings flew the flag for Warrender.
