

Macmillan Art Show 2024 – more art than ever

More than 130 artists will exhibit their art at the Edinburgh Macmillan Art Show 2024.

The exhibition will open to public from 30 November to 1 December 2024.

Macmillan Cancer Support has announced the highest number of artists taking part in the annual charity event since the Covid pandemic. The exhibition will take place at the Cornerstone Centre in the heart of Edinburgh the weekend of 30 November. In addition, an online gallery and store will be available during and after the show.

Featuring affordable artworks from artists based in Scotland, the show is an excellent opportunity for art lovers to contribute to this vital charity. This year's bumper roll call of artists includes a range of well-established, award-winning and up-and-coming talent.

Artists exhibiting at Edinburgh Macmillan Art Show 2024 include MaryAnne Hunt, Gregory Moore, Bobby Rennie, Avril Scott, Claire Gilles-Thompson, Douglas Davies RSW, Evelyn McEwan, Jane Cornwall, Janette Sumner and Peter Foyle.

AJ DEWARS

