

Police appeal for help to trace driver of small white van following hit and run crash in East Lothian

Police are appealing for information following a crash in East Lothian.

Around 4.30pm on Friday, 22 November, 2024, officers received a report of a small white van driving dangerously on the A199 between Wallyford and Tranent.

A short time later the van collided with a car and failed to stop.

Police Constable France Stevenson said: "I am appealing for anyone who witnessed the crash to come forward or who saw the van driving dangerously.

"The van could potentially have damage to the front offside and be marked with grey paint. Motorists who were in the area with dash-cam footage should also get in touch, you may have captured something that can assist our enquiries."

Anyone with any information is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101, quoting 2537 of Friday, 22 November, 2024.
