

Police ‘growing increasingly worried’ about welfare of missing 15-year-old boy

Police Scotland is appealing for information to help trace 15-year-old Ibrahim Njie missing from Edinburgh.

Ibrahim has been missing for a significant time and was last seen in Hay Gardens, Edinburgh.

He is described as 5ft 6 inches tall and of medium build.

Inspector Stewart Massie said: “We are growing increasingly worried for his welfare.

“He has friends and family in Edinburgh and Aberdeen but it’s believed he may still be in the Edinburgh area.

“Anyone with any information on his whereabouts is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101, quoting 1526 of 2 November, 2024.”
