

Team Lockhart defend curling title – just!

There were contrasting finishes to the women's and men's finals when the Edinburgh International Seniors curling event took place over three days at Curl Edinburgh.

The women's team, lead by Jackie Lockhart, required an extra end to retain their title against Team Kennedy.

As for the men it required only five ends for Team Connal to overcome Team Cormack.

Altogether 16 men's teams and eight women's teams took part.
