

Christmas dining experiences – feasts to tempt you

Sail into Christmas with the new “Festive Afternoon Tea” aboard
Scotland’s only five-star luxury floating hotel, Fingal.

Adding some festive magic with an afternoon tea experience, with a nautical twist, Fingal has all the glamour and style of a superyacht, but with an air of old-world Art Deco luxury ocean liner elegance inspired by the ship’s rich maritime heritage.

Available until 4th January 2025, Fingal’s Festive Afternoon Tea menu is priced at £70 per person, or from £85 per person for the extra special Champagne Afternoon Tea. Advance reservation is required.

Festive Storytellers Afternoon Tea

Inspired by iconic Christmas tales and characters—from A Christmas Carol to Nightmare Before Christmas—the menu pays tribute to Edinburgh's 20th anniversary as UNESCO City of Literature. Available until 4 January 2025, Wednesday to Saturday, at the Sheraton Grand Hotel & Spa's One Square, this afternoon tea, costing £55 per person, celebrates Edinburgh's rich literary heritage.

A feasting Christmas at Mowgli

Mowgli's Christmas Feasting Menu comes straight from their Indian kitchen. At £35 per person and available until 5 January, it's perfect if you're planning a Christmas get-together or organising a festive meal with colleagues.

Starting with a glass of fizz or a cold Cobra beer, enjoyed with the iconic Mowgli Chat Bombs. Street chat and meats includes the heady Fenugreek Kissed Fries, punchy Gunpowder Chicken, and the crowd-pleasing Himalayan Cheese on Toast with the wintry spiced ooze of strong cheddar

For the main event, there's a selection of towering tiffins of meat and vegetable curries with rice to share. The dishes are chosen and curated by the chef – tiffin roulette is total potluck, as it is in India. Christmas Feasting is rounded off with the indulgent Mowgli Chocolate Brownie with ice cream or Mango Sorbet served in waffle cones.
