

Christmas shopping on Thistle Street

Visitors to Thistle Street are promised a joyful day of shopping on Saturday 7 December as traders on the cobbled street transform it into a festive haven for holiday shoppers.

The independent shops are all combining forces to offer exclusive holiday deals.

The Laura Bond store will host seasonal celebrations from 10 am to 5.45pm.

Shoppers will be able to receive an exclusive 20% discount on all in-store purchases for one day only.

Complimentary Christmas themed cookies and a glass of fizz whilst browsing the store.

- Goodie bags, valued at over £100, for the first 15 Laura Bond *paying customers, filled with holiday-themed surprises.

Other offers available on Thistle Street include:

- 20% off all coffee-based drinks at Cobbled Roasters
- 15% off everything at SMI Store

- A 50% sale rack, along with 10% off the rest of the store at Stoodio
- 10% off at Black Moon Botanica

This special shopping event offers an intimate, community-focused experience, perfect for finding one-of-a-kind gifts in a from small local Edinburgh businesses in a warm and festive setting. By choosing to shop local this season, customers can directly contribute to the success of independent retailers who bring craftsmanship and character to Edinburgh's retail scene.

Laura Bond, Founder and Creative Director at Laura Bond Jewellery said: "This Christmas, I'm encouraging people to embrace the spirit of community by choosing to shop local for those last-minute stocking fillers, rather than turning to large online retailers. After all, local businesses are at the heart of our communities, adding unique character, creating jobs, and supporting a thriving local economy."

"Even buying just a couple of gifts from independent businesses can make a real difference. Now, more than ever, it's vital to shop small."

Laura Bond is taking part in the shopping day.