

Edinburgh Business Stories podcast – the 50th episode is out today

Business podcast Edinburgh Business Stories is today celebrating the release of its 50th episode with local businessman Ricky Nicol, Co-founder and Vice Chairman of local success story, Commsworld, one of the UK's leading Next Generation Network Operators.

Co-hosts Alan Smith and Alex Richards began Edinburgh Business Stories in January 2023 hoping to create a platform where successful business owners in Edinburgh would share the story of their business journey – the ups, the downs and the stuff people don't know but would like to know.

Alan Smith said: "Edinburgh is full of amazing businesses and they all have their own unique story but we never really get to hear it because there's not been a platform, until now".

Episodes are released on YouTube and all the usual podcast platforms every two weeks and last for around 45 mins and include stories from the Queen's funeral director, William Purves, Hibernian FC Chairman, iconic hospitality venues like Tigerlily and Vittoria and the recently opened inland surf resort, Lost Shore – which you can watch below.
