- Cards for good causes at St John's Episcopal Church on Lothian Road/Princes Street. A pop up shop. Time is running out to make your Christmas shopping count for more this festive season. Cards For Good Causes' pop-up shop in Edinburgh is in its final days at St John's Church, offering a unique opportunity to support charities and local communities with every card or gift you purchase.
- Step into a world of festive magic while you still can and explore an enchanting selection of greeting cards, advent calendars, and gifts that ignite the holiday spirit. Don't miss the chance to browse stunning gift wrap, decorations, stationery, and homeware – all available until the shop closes for the season.
  - Every purchase makes a meaningful impact, supporting both national charities and the local community. Over the past decade, Cards For Good Causes has raised over £22.5 million for more than 100 charities, including NSPCC, RSPCA, WaterAid, Shelter, Carers UK, and The Ramblers. Additionally, more than £2.7 million has been contributed to local churches, libraries, and community projects.

Restaurant businesses closing and opening

Two restaurants have closed this week and a bakery. The restaurants are the Lookout on Calton Hill and The Gardener's Cottage in London Road.

The bakery where increased prices have forced business owners to close the doors is Cuckoo's Bakery with a branch on Dundas Street and one in Morningside.

A new European style Café-Bar & Brasserie and cocktail lounge is now open.

Liberté Café-Bar & Brasserie and Bar 1819, has opened at Apex Waterloo Place Hotel at the east end.

The restaurant is designed to be a refined, yet relaxing place to gather, eat or drink with a menu celebrating the best of Scottish produce. The venue is the centrepiece of a £2 million ground floor renovation of Apex Waterloo Place, owned by Norman Springford's Apex Hotels.

EDINBURGH'S NEWSPAPER... A CAPITAL READ FROM START TO FINISH

Santa's on track

By PHYLLIS STEPHEN

ALL ABOARD THE TRAM to get to the city centre for Christmas fun. Santa's in town ready to meet children just next to the tram stop in the Piccolo Spiegellent in St Andrew Square, where there will be stories, a letter writing station and a post box to send any missives direct to Santa's workshop. The newest attraction in Edinburgh is the Christmas Tree Maze which is one of the UK's largest illuminated Christmas tree trails. Step free access but anyone who wants to explore the maze is advised to buy a ticket in advance and remember the EH postcode discount. A spokesperson for producers, UniqueAssembly, said: "Edinburgh's Christmas is finally here, and with a seven-week programme packed full of family favourites, this year promises to be one of the biggest and best ever. Whether sipping on cool cocktails in our brand new Ice Bar, enjoying a festive treat at the Coorie Inn or showing off your skating skills on the Ice Rink, there's something for everyone at Edinburgh's Christmas." edwinterfest.com/edinburgh-christmas/
