Man 34 taken to hospital after crash on West Maitland Street

West Maitland Street was closed for several hours following a crash this afternoon, Saturday, 14 December, 2024.

The crash took place at 1.45pm and involved a bus and a male pedestrian.

The 34-year-old man was taken to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh Hospital for treatment.

Officers say that their enquiries are ongoing.