

Meet Father Christmas after lunch

Casa Mia, the family run Italian restaurant on Dunfermline's Nethertown Broad Street, has announced that Santa Claus is coming to the restaurant, on three dates when children can eat completely free, together with meeting the man in red!

Santa (actually Head Chef/Proprietor, Fabio Teti's Uncle who resembles Father Christmas with his large white beard) will be present on Wednesday, the 4th of December at 5 o'clock, on Sunday, the 8th of December at 12:30 pm, and Wednesday, the 11th of December at 5 pm.

Head Chef/Proprietor, Fabio Teti, who recently became a father to Jospeh, or Guiseppe, who is named after his grandfather said: "We are delighted to be bringing Father Christmas to Casa Mia on three separate dates.

"As well as meeting Santa, children can enjoy their food for free. These dates are a time for families to enjoy some quality time together, whether it's grandparents bringing their grandchildren, or mums and dads."

"We hope this will help families out at this busy and expensive time of the year.

"We look forward to welcoming you to Casa Mia, and hope that everybody, including our regular customers, has a fantastic Christmas."
